

Poonam Panchwagh

Poonam Panchwagh, a promising young Kathak dancer, choreographer has already become famous by her choreographies and her performances within the Kathak scene of India. She is the senior disciple of Guru Rujuta Soman and has studied Kathak at the Urmee Kathak Institute, Pune and is extremely eloquent with the language of gestures, which imparts her tremendous capacity to enthrall the audiences with her performances of Classical Kathak. She has rightly showed her mettle through original traditional as well as contemporary thematic compositions. She has started a dance school - "TRISHNA", where training in pure Classical Kathak is given - an attempt to carry forward the work of her Guru. Poonam Panchwagh presently has been invited by Ms. Anne Dietrich for performing and imparting the knowledge of Classical Kathak in Germany.

Anne Dietrich

Anne Dietrich, a graduated Culture and Dance Educationist, hails from the rich and famous academy - Kerala Kalamandalam Deemed University for Art and Culture in India. Besides contemporary European dance and Classical Ballet, she is pursuing her Doctorate in the rare Classical Indian dance style "Mohiniyattam" under the guidance of her Guru Prof. Kalamandalam Leelamma. In addition to dancing, her training in the European Music and acting also contribute to her artistic assets. Lately, she has also been receiving training in "Kathak" a North Indian Classical Dance form. Suedraum - a Multicultural, cross-country dance studio, has been recently started by her in Leipzig, through which she aims at imparting the knowledge especially of the Indian Classical Dance styles.
